

Trudy Ludwig

Making a Difference in Kids' Lives, One Book at a time®

Trudy Ludwig is a nationally acclaimed speaker and an award-winning author who specializes in writing children's books that help kids cope with and thrive in their social world. She has received rave reviews from educators, experts, organizations, and parents for her passion and compassion in addressing friendship, bullying, and cyberbullying issues. Trudy presents at schools and conferences around the country and educates students, parents, and teachers on these important topics. An active member of the International Bullying Prevention Association, Trudy collaborates with leading U.S. experts and organizations and has been profiled on national / regional television and radio and in newsprint.

Trudy's books have received Mom's Choice Gold Awards, the Moonbeam Children's Books Gold Award, and are included in the Cooperative Children's Book Center's "Best of the Year" selection, NCSS-CBC Notable Social Studies Books for Young People selection, and the National Crime Prevention Council's "Circle of Respect" book club selection. She was the content advisor for Sesame Street Workshop's "Good Birds Club" episode and was an expert panel member featured on Sesame Street's recent video series on bullying.

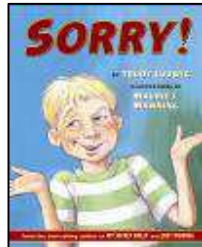

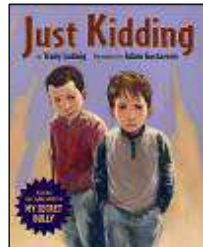

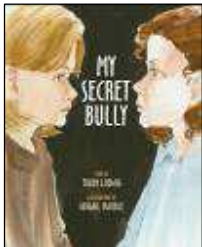

"...one of my favorite children's authors."
